

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Act 427 of 1973

With respect to employment, compensation, and benefits to employees, consultants, contract workers, and volunteers, the Executive Director may not cause or allow jeopardy to fiscal integrity or public image.

Accordingly, the Executive Director may not:

1. Change his or her compensation and benefits.
2. Promise or imply permanent or guaranteed employment.
3. Establish current compensation or benefits that are not within state-approved salary schedules or benefit provisions.
4. Hire or change the assignment of existing personnel for regular full-time positions classified as C124 or higher without notification to the Board. Board notification shall be fulfilled by notification to the Board Chair.
